Senator McNally moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-3-1101(2), is amended by deleting the subdivision in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

() "Dealer" means an entity or person who:

(A) Is the operator of a retail station or other retail outlet and who delivers liquified gas into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles;

(B) Delivers liquified gas into a dispenser capable of fueling motor vehicles; or

(C) Dispenses compressed natural gas to the public.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 67, Chapter 3, Part 11, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

67-3-1119.

(a) A dealer shall file an application with the commissioner for a compressed natural gas dealer permit, which is not assignable.

(b) An application for a permit shall be filed on a form provided by the commissioner.

(c) The permit shall be posted in a conspicuous place or kept available for inspection at the principal place of business of the permittee. A dealer permittee shall reproduce the permit and display it in a conspicuous place at each additional place of business from which natural gas is sold, delivered or used in motor vehicles.

(d) Application for a permit shall be accompanied by a bond, payable to this state, as provided in Part 6 of this chapter.

(e) A permit is permanent and valid as long as the permittee furnishes timely reports and remits the taxes when due, or until surrendered by the holder or cancelled by the commissioner.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 67, Chapter 3, Part 11, is further amended by adding the following as a new section:

67-3-1120.

(a) "Qualified natural gas dispenser" means a dispenser that measures the amount dispensed by means of a National Type Evaluation Program certified fuel meter.

(b) A natural gas dealer permit authorizes a dealer to collect and remit taxes on compressed natural gas delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles by means of a qualified natural gas dispenser with meter capability. When compressed natural gas is delivered by a dealer to a customer's vehicle by means of a qualified natural gas dispenser, user permits under this part are not required.

(c) Dealers shall be legally responsible for collecting the tax imposed by § 67-3-1113 at the time of delivery to a vehicle.

(d) For the purpose of reporting the amount of tax imposed by § 67-3-1113 on metered compressed natural gas, each dealer shall file with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a monthly report on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month of activity, whether or not fuel is used or sold, and remit the tax due and collected. The report shall be executed under a declaration of penalty of perjury and shall state the total amount of compressed natural gas dispensed by the permittee within the state.

(e) A dealer shall keep for four (4) years, open to inspection at all times by the department and the attorney general and reporter, a complete record of all metered compressed natural gas received and used or sold.

(f) Meters and qualified natural gas dispensers are subject to inspection and verification by the Department of Agriculture's weights and measures in accordance with Title 47, Chapter 26, Part 9 and such part's enforcement provisions.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-3-1114(a), is amended by deleting the subsection in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

(a) A user of compressed natural gas shall apply to and obtain from the commissioner a compressed natural gas user permit, unless the user purchases compressed natural gas from a dealer defined in § 67-3-1119.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Thereupon, Senate Bill No. 2718, as amended, passed its third and final consideration by the following vote:

Senator Johnson moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-303(d)(3)(B), is amended by deleting the language "three (3)" wherever it may appear and by substituting instead the language "six (6)".

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-304(b)(2), is amended by inserting the following language as a new subdivision (E):

(E) Offset expenses and fees.

(i) In addition to any remedies authorized by this chapter, the department may offset any covered unemployment compensation debt due to the department against any federal income tax refund due to the department's claimant debtor in accordance with § 6402 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6402, and the federal Treasury Offset Program, 31 C.F.R. Part 285, or any successor program.

(ii) The department may exercise this right of setoff if the obligation of the debtor was the result of:

(a) Fraud or the claimant debtor's failure to report earnings; or

(b) Any penalties and interest assessed by the department on a debt contemplated by this subdivision (2)(E).

(iii) Any fee or administrative expense imposed by the United States Department of the Treasury or the United States Department of Labor in connection with such offset shall be the responsibility of the debtor.

(iv) Following such offset, the amount of credit to which a debtor is entitled shall not exceed the amount of the credit received by the department.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-404(b), is amended by inserting the following language as a new subdivision (7):

(7)(A) In addition to any remedies authorized by this chapter, the department may offset any covered unemployment compensation debt due to the department against any federal income tax refund due to the department's taxpayer debtor in accordance with § 6402 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6402, and the federal Treasury Offset Program, 31 C.F.R. Part 285, or any successor program.

(B) The department may exercise this right of setoff if the obligation of the debtor was the result of:

(i) Past due contributions due to the state's unemployment fund that remain uncollected and the state has determined the taxpayer debtor to be liable for those contributions; or

(ii) Any penalties and interest assessed by the department on a debt contemplated by this subdivision (7).

(C) Any fee or administrative expense imposed by the United States Department of the Treasury or the United States Department of Labor in connection with such offset shall be the responsibility of the debtor.

(D) Following such offset, the amount of credit to which a debtor is entitled shall not exceed the amount of the credit received by the department.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-501(a)(1), is amended by adding the following as a new subdivision (I):

(I) Fees, penalties, or interest collected in accordance with the federal Treasury Offset Program described in § 6402 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6402, and 31 C.F.R. Part 285, 42 U.S.C. § 503(a), and § 50-7-715.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-501(c), is amended by deleting the first sentence in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

Money shall be requisitioned from the state's account in the unemployment trust fund and shall be used exclusively for the payment of benefits, including extended benefits authorized by § 50-7-305; for refunds pursuant to § 50-7-404; and for the payment of fees authorized under the Treasury Offset Program described in § 6402 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6402, and 31 C.F.R. Part 285, except that money credited to this state's account pursuant to § 903 of the Social Security Act, codified in 42 U.S.C. § 1103, by the Employment Security Administration Financing Act of 1954, shall be used for the purpose of paying benefits as provided in this section, and for any purposes for which an appropriation may be made, which general appropriations act shall specifically comply with all the requirements of § 903 of the Social Security Act, codified in 42 U.S.C. § 1103, by the Employment Security Administration Financing Act of 1954.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-503(a)(1), is amended by deleting the subdivision in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(1) There is created in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "unemployment compensation special administrative fund", which shall consist of interest collected on delinquent payments pursuant to § 50-7-404(a) and, except as provided in § 50-7-501(a)(1)(I), all fines and penalties collected pursuant to this chapter, including the penalty rate payments collected under § 50-7-403(b)(2)(G)(i)(b), the civil money penalties collected under § 50-7-403(b)(2)(G)(ii), and fees, penalties, or interest collected in accordance with the federal Treasury Offset Program described in § 6402 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6402, and 31 C.F.R. Part 285, 42 U.S.C. § 503(a).

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-7-715, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

50-7-715.

(a) Any person who has received unemployment benefits by knowingly misrepresenting, misstating, or failing to disclose any material fact, or by making a false statement or false representation without a good faith belief as to the correctness of the statement or representation, after a determination by the commissioner that such a violation has occurred, shall be required to repay the amount of benefits received.

(b)(1) The commissioner shall assess a penalty equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the overpaid benefits as described in subsection (a), to comply with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. § 503(a).

(2) The commissioner shall further assess a penalty equal to seven and one half percent (7.5%) of the overpaid benefits described in subsection (a). Monies collected by this penalty shall be used to defray the costs of deterring, detecting, or collecting overpayments. The penalty provided in this subdivision (b)(2) is in addition to the penalty provided in subdivision (b)(1).

(c)(1) In addition to the requirements of subsections (a) and (b), the commissioner shall assess interest at a rate of no more than one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the total amount due that remains unpaid for a period of thirty (30) or more calendar days after the date on which the commissioner sends notice of the commissioner's determination that a violation has occurred to the last known address of the claimant. For purposes of this subdivision (c)(1), "total amount due" includes the unemployment benefits received pursuant to subsection (a) and the penalties provided for in subsection (b).

(2) A pending appeal of the order of the commissioner shall not suspend the assessment of interest on unemployment benefits obtained in violation of this chapter.

(d) Monies received by the department in repayment of unemployment benefits and payment of penalties and interest pursuant to subsections (a), (b), and (c) shall first be applied to the unemployment benefits received, then to any interest due. These monies shall be used by the department to defray the costs of deterring, detecting or collecting overpayments.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Senator Henry moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 2

AMEND by deleting the language "42 U.S.C. § 503(a)" in § 50-7-715(b)(1) in Section 7 and by substituting instead the language "42 U.S.C. § 503(a)(11)".

AND FURTHER AMEND by inserting the following language at the end of § 50-7-715(b)(1) in Section 7:

Monies collected by this penalty shall be deposited into the unemployment compensation fund as provided in § 50-7-501.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the language "(a), (b), and (c)" in § 50-7-715(d) in Section 7 and by substituting instead the language "(a), (b)(2), and (c)".

(a) To assist the board of medical examiners in the performance of its duties, there is hereby established the committee for clinical perfusionists, composed of seven (7) members who are each appointed by the governor. The committee shall approve the examination required by this chapter. The chair of the committee shall be a perfusionist.

(b) The committee shall consist of four (4) perfusionist members, one (1) hospital administrator from a licensed healthcare facility in Tennessee in which cardiac surgery is performed, one (1) licensed physician who shall be either a cardiac surgeon or a cardiac anesthesiologist, and one (1) public member. The public member shall be a resident of Tennessee for one (1) year and shall be a registered voter. The public member shall be a person who is not and never was a member of any medical profession or the spouse of a medical professional. The public member shall not be a member of, or a consultant to, any trade association in the field of health care. The public member shall not have or have had a material financial interest in either the provision of professional services specified by this chapter, or any activity or organization directly related to any licensed profession specified in this chapter. Perfusionist members may be appointed from lists of qualified persons submitted to the governor by interested perfusionist groups and the committee for clinical perfusionists. The governor shall consult with such groups and the committee to determine qualified persons to fill the positions. The members of the committee shall be appointed for terms of six (6) years, except those first appointed, of whom one (1) shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years, two (2) shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of five (5) years and one (1) shall be appointed for a term of six (6) years. The perfusionist committee members shall be residents of the State of Tennessee for at least one (1) year, shall be United States citizens and shall meet all the requirements for licensing provided in this chapter. In making appointments to the committee, the governor shall ensure that the committee is representative of the environments in which perfusionists practice. The hospital administrator member and the physician member shall be residents of Tennessee. In making appointments to the committee, the governor shall strive to ensure that at least one (1) person serving on the committee is sixty (60) years of age or older and that at least one (1) person serving on the committee is a member of a racial minority. Of the total membership of the committee, no less than two (2) members shall be from each grand division of the state. In making the initial appointments to the committee, the perfusionist members shall not be required to be licensed but shall apply for a license from the committee within ninety (90) days of the issuance of licenses by the committee.
